

Dudd Greener 22 Mawrth

July to polish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet.

One cold morning as chilly as an icecube in Verona the two great rival supermarkets, the Montagues and Capulets were involved, yet again in a pointless argument over whose store was the best. A Montague called Romeo was out side the Capulet's store shouting, "Don't go in here, go in the Montagues. This store has posar!" This was a rather incident such as when they stole the donation money. As a consequence the charity did not get the money! Because of this incident the Mayor got involved and he warned them that if they fought again I will send you to jail.

As the days past slowly as a snail and as quiet as a child with a lily pop the Capulet Employee of the month awards ceremonious was held in an enormous hall filled with a feast as big as the eye can see. There were chandeliers hanging off in a black suit made of silk & announced that Tybalt won. Excitedly he ran up to the stage. Meanwhile tip toing throw a open wind they went to the back of the hall. After time passed the award assembly turned into a dance. All of the guests glanced at their partners, all but one lonely girl named Juliet kicking her heels against the shining floor. She looked over and a boy was staring over. They felt like they belonged with each other straight away. They agreed that they should get married this very night.

Not long after, the secret wedding day arrived and Friar Lawrence married the happy couple. Romeo went to see his supply and Tybalt and his gang posted off of the bushes and shouted, "you think me victory is funny don't you I challenge you to a fight!"

Romeo walked away calmly but Mercutio replied, "come and have a go if you think you're having fun!"

"I will!" shouted Tybalt and he killed Mercutio and ran.

"You do not now what you have done!" screamed Romeo and he stabbed Tybalt. In no time the prince banished Romeo forever!!!

Meanwhile, Juliet ran to Friar Lawrence with some earth shaking news, "Romeo has to live" crying in his arms. She exclaimed what happened and she thought Friar Lawrence had an idea to make a potion. The next day Friar Lawrence said to Juliet, "I will make a posion for you to drink. It will make you appear dead for 42 hours"

pleas do not forget to tell Romeo the plan "My dear lady I will not!"
replied Friar Lawrence.

Not long after lord and lady Capulet noted Juliet did not appear at the table for breakfast table so they climbed the most magnificent

Marvel Spiral Stairs. To their complet shock their beautiful amazing bater Juliet was dead on the floor the family sobbed in sorrow.

They contacted Friar Lawrence for a funeral mentally Romeo was looking in the bushes and he saw Juliet being taken in to the family tomb he got in his company car and drove off to announce this news to Romeo, "Romeo Romeo I have some awful news Juliet is dead!"

he said "My wife is dead and so will I" said Romeo this his lips started to tremble and he ran like a cannonball firing.

To the underground cemetery to bury poison. Men with Friar Lawrence was sat at home feeling as if he had forgot to do something.

Romeo sprinted to the tomb then he sorch fore Juliet he felt as sad as a mum how has lost her child there eist Juliet fore the last time and drank the poison there Juliet wack up and saw Romeo and grabd his dagger Friy Lorans wack in and was shockt he explined to the famalus then they went to moyer and he fell fures with the famaly and sed at the top of his lung, "for never was a story of more woe than that of Juliet and her Romeo."
